From Tronzano, with a short walk from the car park in front of the post office, get back to the hairpin turning and the crossroads for Via Cesari and Via Valenti. Turn right into Via Cesari and reach the crossing for Poggio (path 135). Continue to the left along Via Cesari as far as the crossing for Porto and Ronco Scigolino (path 136). Enter the village and at the fork between Via Valenti and Via Colombo turn right in order to arrive at the mule track which soon leads to the top of the village at a view point and at a mass of stone with petroglyphs. Following the mule track ,you will reach a path on the left leading towards the church Madonna dell'Assunta (path 131B). Walk straight ahead along the mule track, halfway up the hill through the wood of broad -leaved trees. The mule track turns into a steeper path leading to the locality Vignée, from which a really steep stretch downhill leads to the junction with the path between Bassano and Musignano (131).
